DigiReps
Smart way to grow your team remotely!

Client Case Study & Success Story

Global Expansion of Sales Development
For DRIP
Website: www.drip.com

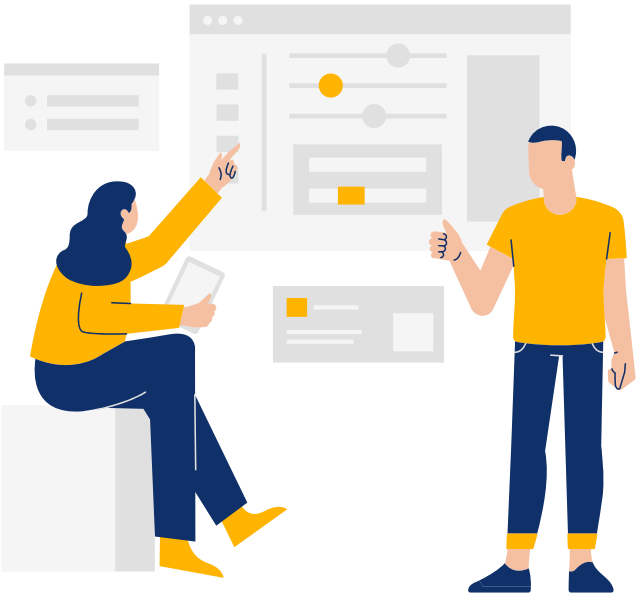
Client Intro

Drip is an eCommerce marketing automation platform designed to help online brands build strong customer relationships through personalized email and SMS campaigns. The company provides powerful tools for segmentation, automation, and analytics, enabling businesses to optimize their marketing strategies and drive customer engagement. Drip's headquarters is located in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Client Challenges

Drip aimed to expand its reach globally but encountered several key obstacles:

- International Expansion Complexity – They needed a sales team capable of reaching potential clients in multiple countries, such as South Africa and the United Kingdom.
- Time Zone Constraints – Their business required sales reps who could work flexible hours, adapting to different time zones in their target markets.
- Lead Research Limitations – They lacked the resources to identify and compile high-quality lead lists tailored to each country they wanted to enter.



DigiReps Solutions

- Flexible, Global Sales Team – Provided sales reps who could operate in any country and adjust their schedules to match the time zones of Drip's target markets, such as leveraging talent from Nigeria for the African region.
- Advanced Lead Research Services – Curated highly targeted lead lists, ensuring that Drip's sales reps had quality prospects to engage with in every new market.
- End-to-End SDR & Lead Research Management – Fully managed Drip's SDR (Sales Development Representative) and lead research teams, ensuring consistent execution, strategic alignment, and measurable success.

DigiReps
Smart way to grow your team remotely!

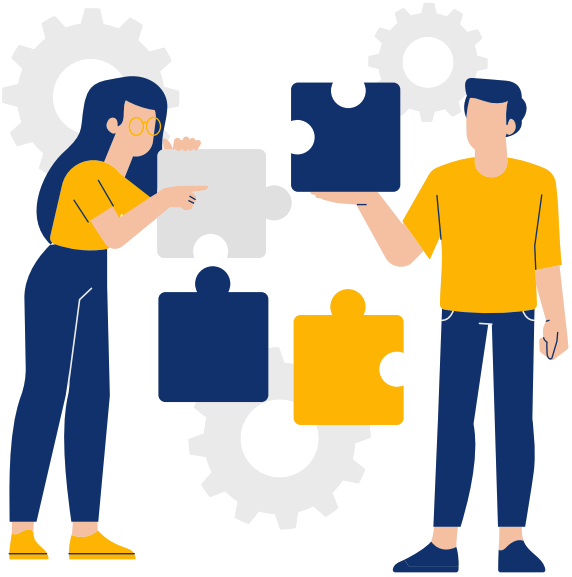
AT A GLANCE

Challenges

- Expanding Globally – Needed a sales team to reach clients in multiple countries like South Africa and the UK.
- Time Zone Constraints – Required flexible reps to adapt to different time zones.
- Lead Research Limitations – Lacked resources to identify high-quality leads in new markets.

Solutions

- Global Sales Team – DigiReps provided adaptable reps, including talent from Nigeria for the African region.
- Targeted Lead Research – Delivered high-quality, country-specific lead lists to improve outreach.
- Full SDR & Lead Management – End-to-end management of sales reps and lead research for seamless execution.



Successes

Seamless Global Expansion

DigiReps helped Drip to successfully expanded outreach into multiple countries without operational headaches.

Optimized Sales Efficiency

DigiReps helps Drip eliminate inefficiencies in their sales process by providing high-quality, country-specific lead lists. By leveraging advanced research and data-driven insights, we ensured their sales team had access to the most relevant and conversion-ready prospects, allowing them to engage more effectively in new markets.

Enhanced International Engagement

Increased their ability to connect with global prospects through a dedicated and adaptable sales team.

Takeaway

By partnering with DigiReps, Drip overcame the challenges of international expansion, streamlined its lead generation efforts, and built a scalable sales strategy. This collaboration enabled them to enter new markets with confidence, engage effectively with international clients, and drive sustained business growth.